celebration--an inter-cultural service of music, word and dance.*

This event has its origins in the aftermath of September 11, 2001. In anguish and sorrow, we came together from our different cultural and faith traditions, to proclaim and celebrate our rich diversity.

The healing effect of the evening led us to repeat the event over the last fifteen years with presentations from the Muslim, Jain, Christian, Baha'i, Buddhist, Hindu, Sikh, Jewish, Native American, and UU communities.
